Word Study for --- ESHCOL

A photograph of ancient ruins, likely a temple or palace, featuring a long row of stone columns and a wide, paved stone path leading into the distance. The scene is set against a clear blue sky, and the ruins are bathed in warm, golden light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning. The path is flanked by more ruins and some sparse vegetation.

Gen 14:13 And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate with Abram.

Gen 14:24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

Num 13:23 And they came unto the brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

Num 13:24 The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

A monarch butterfly with vibrant orange and black wings is perched on a large green leaf. The butterfly's wings are spread, showing the characteristic black veins and white spots on the orange background. The leaf is a deep green color with visible veins.

Num 32:09 For when they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

Deu 01:24 And they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.
