

A close-up photograph of a pansy flower. The flower is primarily purple with a yellow center and some orange petals. It is surrounded by green foliage and other pansy flowers in shades of orange and yellow. The background is slightly blurred, showing more green leaves and flowers.

Job 15:30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.