

Leviticus 25:48 After that he is sold
he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him:

A multi-tiered waterfall cascading over large, dark rocks in a lush, green setting. The water flows from the top left, down several levels of rocks, and finally into a pool at the bottom. The rocks are dark and wet, with some moss visible. The background is filled with dense green foliage and trees under a clear blue sky.
